BEESLEY ENTERTAINMENT.

Professor Bessiey, with his talented family, assisted by some of the local talent of Lehl, gave a very interesting musical entertainment in the tabernacle last evening. Although the nudlence was not large, it was a very appreciative one. The solos, duets and choruses were fine. The solos given by the professor on the violin, the plane, by Alvin, the cornet, by Frank, and the xylophone, by Adelbert B, were very pleasing.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS.

Seventeen Teachers Want Their Salaries Raised—Work for Burton.

At the regular meeting of the board of education last night, Burton was absent, but he was not forgotten, for when a gentleman appeared with a rare design in needlework, the president promptly referred him to Mr. Burton. An agent for a publishing house appeared with some books to show to the board, and he was also referred to Mr. Burton. Seventeen teachers filed applications of an advance in salaries, which were also referred to Mr. Burton, so that the gentleman will be kept busy for the rest of the week.

'Mr. Dee of the finance committee reported that $16 had been paid in interest to J. C. Armstrong; that $15.000 had been received from the county treasurer since last meeting, and that $1.144 had been received from tax sale re-PANCY aries Raised-Work for Burton.

It developed that there was a misunderstanding between the board and State Superintendent Parks in regard to the amount of money which the city schools are to receive from the state. The amount in dispute is about $250. The superintendent and the clerk were instructed to go to Salt Lake and attend to the matter. Superintendent Allison reported the resignation of Miss Copeland and the employment in her stead of Mrs. John D. Hurst.

superintendent was filed, showing a total enrollment of 4,004, average be-longing, 4,017; average daily attendance, 3,900; number of pupils neither tardy nor absent 2,463.
